

ROCKY MOUNTAIN BRASSWORKS

PRESENTS

*A Festival of Music,
Sweet as Cotton Candy*

Saturday, May 18, 2024, 4:00 p.m.

Wheat Ridge Center for Music and Arts

Our Music Director

Ron Argotsinger has been a member of Rocky Mountain Brassworks since 1993 performing with the ten-piece group, Elite Brass, as trombone section leader and soloist with the band. He retired from teaching in 2010 after 32 years in public schools from rural Nebraska and northeast Colorado to the Denver area. Ron is a graduate of Arvada High School and the University of Northern Colorado, where he holds bachelors and masters degrees in music education.

Ron remains very active as a musician performing with the Metropolitan Jazz Orchestra and conducting the Denver Pops Orchestra. As busy as retirement is, he still has time to enjoy gardening, fishing and his favorite activity, playing with his six grandchildren.

Rocky Mountain Brassworks Musicians

Soprano Cornet

Denise Clark

Solo Cornet

Dave McLoughlin **

Mike White

Rob Alcorn

Ned Avery

Mike Snell

Repiano Cornet

Mike Lusby *

2nd Cornet

David Leever

Chuck Meisner

3rd Cornet

Bill Fee

Bob Preusser

Flugelhorn

Doug Barta

Tenor Horn

Patti Sweeden §

Bernard Beecher

Peter Emanuel

Baritone Horn

Dan Pinkston

John House §

Trombone

John Ries

Doug Harris

John Hupp £

Richard Patrick

Bass Trombone

Curtis Edfast

Euphonium

Nathaniel Kleve

Jorin Benson

E flat Tuba

Stephen Bollinger

Rodney Owens

B flat Tuba

Pamala Wolta *

Kyle Blackburn

Percussion

John Reed

Jordan Taylor

Dan Way

* = board member,  = band president

§ = treasurer, § = graphics coordinator

£ = band music librarian

“A Festival of Music” Program

Procession of the Nobles

*Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov
Transcribed by James Curnow*

Music for a Festival

Philip Sparke

Nicaea

William Hines

Samba Symphonique

Darrol Barry

INTERMISSION

The Fairest of the Fair

John Philip Sousa

When the Saints Go Marching In

Arr'd by Gordon Langford

A Circus Suite

Stuart Johnson

1. Bareback Riders
2. Elephant Act
3. Trapeze Artiste
4. Slapstick

Let's Face the Music and Dance

*Irving Berlin
Arranged by Goff Richards*

Jubilation!

James Curnow

Upcoming Rocky Mountain Brassworks Concerts

◆ Broomfield Memorial Day—Ceremony and Picnic

Monday, May 27, 2024, Broomfield County Commons Park 11:00 a.m.
Rocky Mountain Brassworks will perform for this free annual event hosted by the Broomfield Veterans Memorial Museum.

◆ High-Note Thursday in Winter Park

Thursday, August 15, 2024, Rendezvous Event Center, 6:00 p.m.
High-Note Thursdays are a free summer concert series on Thursday nights at Rendezvous Event Center in Winter Park, CO.

Check our website for information about all Rocky Mountain Brassworks concerts and follow us on Facebook. Tickets may be purchased in the following ways:

1. At the door using either cash, check or credit card.
2. By visiting www.rockymountainbrassworks.org

For some venues, you may be directed to the appropriate website to purchase and pick up your tickets at will call.

Today's program of BRASS BAND music program is presented through support from:

The Rocky Mountain Brassworks is a 501C3 non-profit organization and has several sponsors to keep playing the wonderful music that you hear today. Even so, the expenses for our band, like so many other independent public organizations, are high. We have created a volunteer sponsor system to help with those expenses and we invite you to participate.

To join with us contact: RMB Board - RockyMtnBrassworks@gmail.com